

Care For Yourself First, Then For Others

When women Connect4Good, there's no limit to what we can do!

Dear Dr. Nancy,

WomenSpeak is clarifying our focus on you! We'll help you create a quality life by taking care of yourself as well as you do for others.

We'll help you use your talents, time and treasures in connection with like-minded women who also want to make a difference. Each of us may achieve only small results by ourselves but when we combine our voices there is no limit to what we can do. So get out of your comfort zone, stoke your fire and live and work with joyful courage!

Watch for our two major new priorities:

- Women Connect4Good, a new website initiative for sharing solutions to the common challenges we all encounter when working with others for a good cause.
- A book-in-progress, in collaboration with many smart amazing women contributors, whose working title is: "What are you waiting for? Find your inner talents and strengths."

In our new online articles and weekly podcasts you will meet the smartest and sharpest women we can find to help with your career, business, health, relationships and staying fit and vital at any age.

This newsletter gives you quick links to new articles. We talk about the inner feminine qualities that make each of us strong leaders.
